

Ken Gilligan – Chairman

Ken is currently a member of the Maritime New Zealand Authority. He was formerly general manager and managing director of the Port of Napier from 1982 to 1999. Prior to this, Ken was CEO of the New Zealand Ports Authority and had a 20-year career working in a number of government departments. Ken is currently a director of City Medical Limited (Napier) and a trustee of the Napier Family Centre Financial Trust. He recently completed a term as a Director of Unison Networks Ltd and nine years as chair of the Hawke's Bay Power Consumers Trust. Ken also served five years as chair of the Energy Trusts of New Zealand Inc from 2003 to 2008.

Hayley Anderson

Hayley is the general manager of the Hastings Health Centre a role she has held since 2002. She carries out this role in conjunction with her own health consultancy set up in April 2010.

Hayley has a wealth of knowledge in the health sector as well as a Masters of Management. She is currently contracted to Telarc/Quality health as accreditation coordinator and lead auditor. Hayley originally trained as a nurse and has acted as Director of Nursing for Hawke's Bay District Health Board and was the manager of Heretaunga Health Village for many years. Hayley has led many health initiatives as well as being a board member of the Hawke's Bay PHO until 2008.

Tim Bevin

A fellow of the Royal New Zealand College of General Practitioners, with a post graduate certificate in Addiction Studies, Tim has been a Hawke's Bay GP and part time medical officer for Hawke's Bay District Health Board Addiction Services for 27 years. He is also medical advisor for Te Poutama Tautoko Addiction Programme, chairman of the directors of City Medical, and a director of the Hawke's Bay PHO. Tim is also deputy chairman of Springhill Trust.

Judie Webster

Judie has been involved with Cranford Hospice since 1993 on the Cranford Committee, the Friends of Cranford Garden Group and for the past 14 years has been the chair of the Cranford Committee which promotes public awareness of the hospice and assists with fundraising. Judie trained as a teacher and also worked as a play therapist at Napier and Hastings Hospitals.

David Pearson

Managing partner of BDO Napier, David has been with BDO and other accountancy firms for 28 years. His expertise is in business advisory services, information technology and corporate restructuring. He is currently the chair of the Eastern Institute of Technology Council, trustee of Sport Hawke's Bay and chair of Otatara Trust.

He has held a number of public positions and is a former Hawke's Bay cricket representative.

Michael Kōing

Michael is currently the chair of Presbyterian Support Services East Coast and also manages his Hastings based business Sunshade. He has held a number of managerial CEO roles and was most recently chief executive of EnzaFoods New Zealand Limited. He is actively involved in providing mentoring advice for young businesses. Michael is a member of Round Table and Rotary and is a member of the Village Baptist Church in Havelock North. He has been a board member of Presbyterian Support East Coast since 2003. He holds degrees in science and pharmacy as well as an MBA.

Frane Rosandich

Frane Rosandich is a family group care and protection coordinator for Child Youth and Family services. He was chairperson for Parentline HB Inc for the last seven years until it merged and became a division of Family Works Presbyterian Support East Coast. Frane has volunteered at Hawke's Bay Regional Prison within the 'Whare Tirohanga Maori focus' unit for the past 10 years and he is currently a member of the Presbyterian Support East Coast board.